LILLINGTON HIGH SCHOOL

LILLINGTON

NORTH CAROLINA

THAT WONDERFUL YEAR

That wonderful year of 1961--a year of achievement, excitement, thrills, and hopes--is a picture story of a year the students of Lillington High will never forget.

There was always someone to share with you your struggle in French, the unsolvable equations, dissecting a frog in biology, your first frightening explosion in chemistry, the excitement when you passed your first time writing in typing, hours spent on term papers, and the feeling of achievement when you made your first dress in "home ec."

Even fonder memories are the extras that life at Lillington High offers--clubs, pep rallies, the ball games, Junior-Senior Banquet, dances in the gym, and earning money for your class.

Friends, studies, the extra curricu- lars--everything from the sublime to the ridiculous--will come into focus with the memories of THAT WONDERFUL YEAR at Lillington High School.

DEDICATION

Although we haven't always done our best,
You've always helped with the rest.

We have argued and laughed through the tears,
But these have been the happiest of our school years.

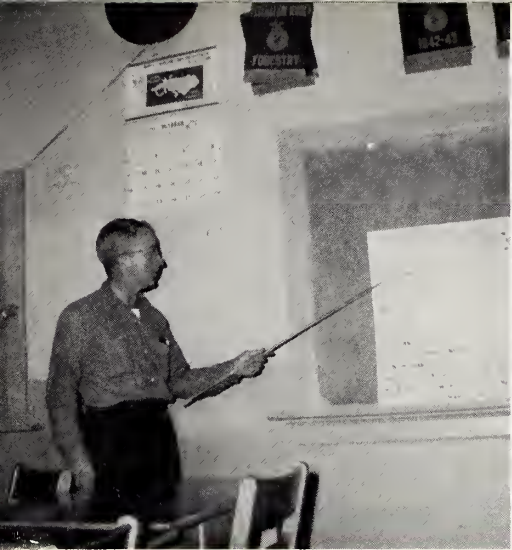

For understanding, patience, and kindness,
You've always helped us through our blindness.

Just for being you, and time you took,
To you, Mrs. Mary Watkins, we dedicate this book.

RECESS, our favorite subject.

DURING THAT WONDERFUL YEAR
1960-1961
MANY MEMORABLE EVENTS OCCURED

What a thrill it was to fit our caps and gowns!

Senior boys helped plant shrubbery around the lunch room.

We didn't really study all these lessons—we tried to fool our parents and teachers.

We had to wait—but we didn't mind—Barbecue sold well at the Senior Supper.

Where you saw HER, You found HIM!

Our Washington trip was all we had expected it to be.

We had to cram for Exams! But we passed.

Junior-Senior--What pretty girls and handsome boys!
